Synopsis of

GRID IRONED (Krazy Kat cartoon)

The picture opens up. Krazy Kat is a substitute on a football team. Collegiate spirit is in evidence all around. As the players are knocked out, the substitutes are put in their place. Finally it is Krazy Kat's chance. He goes into the game and his opponent, the Hippo, has the ball. It is Krazy Kat's job to get that ball by clever ruse. He unloosens the buttons on the Hippo's trousers and the Hippo is momentarily out. He puts the ball in the air to pick up his trousers and Krazy Kat grabs the ball, and starts for the goal with the Hippo in pursuit. After much trouble he is tackled right on the line, and he grabs the goal post and places the ball right over the goal post. There is great cheering and his team wins. Krazy Kat is seen taking his bow as the picture ends.
